

WRITE ON

Annual Young Playwrights' Competition

WRITE ON is Hartford Stage's Annual Young Playwrights' Competition open to all Connecticut residents in grades 9-12.

It all starts with an IDEA.....

Send us your idea for a 10-minute play inspired by a topic that is important to you. Include characters, setting, and as much of the plot as you can—beginning, middle, and end. If your idea is chosen, we'll help with the rest!

What people, places, or events grab your attention?

Who are the characters? Is there anyone or anything that peaks your interest?

Does your idea contain a clear conflict?

Can you explore this topic in a 10-minute format?

Deadline for the entry is October 10, 2016 at 5 pm.

Selected students will get to participate in writing workshops with professional playwright, Kaneza Schaal, collaborate with a professional director and share their work in a public play reading performed by local actors!

How do I enter?

Download the information packet and submission form from our website, email your idea to aclunie@hartfordstage.org (Subject: WRITE ON), fax it to (860) 244-0183, or mail your submission to Aurelia Clunie, Hartford Stage Education, ATTN: Write On, 50 Church Street, Hartford, CT 06103.
